

Solicitors/Lawyers, Doctors, Accountants, Police officers, Nurses, Paramedics are just a few of the vocations that theatre kids grow up to be. Not all young performers continue to pursue a career on the stage, but use the same skills for them to succeed in their chosen professions.

Self-confidence, public speaking, problem solving, collaboration/co-operation, discipline, Cultural and social awareness are just some of the attributes that former MYP performers credit to their life skills from being involved with youth theatre.

Like so many in the arts industry we have been challenged with the enormity of the pandemic, but are determined to continue to provide a much needed safe and supportive space for our young performers. Our committee of management are committed to role model resilience in times of adversity and keeping our professional standards whilst be financially responsible.

Escalating costs and COVID19 compliance and restrictions have made a significant impact on our production budget. As a volunteer not-for-profit program, it is now we reach out to our community to help us, help our young people to continue to experience all that theatre offers and to become the best they can be.

Rogers & Hammerstein's Cinderella is our July school holiday production that is the perfect opportunity to support by sponsorship and or bring the family too!

With a tiered Sponsorship program, we have created an opportunity for all budgets that include an acknowledgement opportunity.
